Rockefeller Brothers Fund
Philanthropy for an Interdependent World

Dear Pocantico Center Guest:

We are looking forward to seeing you for the Rivertown Dance Academy Spring Open House at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 14.

We wanted to share some helpful tips to make your arrival a smooth one.

- Due to an unexpected plumbing issue, there is currently no running water in the David Rockefeller Creative Arts Center . We are actively working to resolve the problem and hope to restore service soon. In the meantime, portable restrooms will be available outside the DR Center.

- GETTING HERE: Navigate to The Pocantico Center, located at 200 Lake Road, Tarrytown, NY. (Detailed directions from various origins are available here.)

- Dancer drop-off for 10:15 a.m. call time: Proceed slowly to the main gate, where a staff member will direct you to drop-off dancers at the main entrance of the David Rockefeller Creative Arts Center. Please continue around the loop to exit.

- Dancer warm up & run through: 10:30 a.m.

- Doors open for audience members: 12:30 p.m.

- Arrival for performance: Proceed slowly to the Check-in Tent, where you'll provide your name to a staff member who will direct you to parking and taxi drop-off. Shuttle vans will transport guests to and from the David Rockefeller Creative Arts Center.

- Performance begins at 1:00 p.m. A reception will follow.

- Your name will be on our guest list when you arrive. You do not need to bring any other proof or ticket confirmation.

- If you require accessibility accommodations or have any questions, please email pocanticoprograms@rbf.org or call 914-524-6560.

- All bags will be subject to search upon arrival at The Pocantico Center. Guests are encouraged to leave bags at home and only bring small bags if necessary.

We hope you enjoy your visit!

Elly Weisenberg Kelly
Manager of Public Programs and Residencies, The Pocantico Center
Pocantico.org